The Greybric is presented in remembrance of Mrs. Hannah Cohn, faculty emeritus; Mr. Stanley Scott, and Mr. Thomas Ketten.

"The curfew tolls the knell of parting day,
The lowing herd wind slowly o'er the lea,
The ploughman homeward plods his weary way,
And leaves the world to darkness and to me."

Memories

light the corners of my mind misty, watercolor memories of the way we were.

Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind smiles we gave to one another for the way we were.

Can it be that it was all so simple then or has time rewritten every line?
If we had the chance to do it all again tell me would we—could we?

Memories

may be beautiful and yet ones too painful to remember we simply choose to forget.
So it's the laughter
we will remember
whenever we remember
the way we were
the way we were

The swallows are making them ready to fly.
Wheeling out on a windy sky:
Goodbye, Summer, goodbye, goodbye.
